INTRODUCTION

This is the first issue of United Nations documents index. The current publication is prepared by the Dag Hammarskjöld Library at United Nations Headquarters in New York and is a product of the United Nations Bibliographic Information System (UNBIS). Some citations have been prepared by the United Nations Library at Geneva, a member of the UNBIS network. United Nations documents index covers documents and publications received by the Library, issued by United Nations offices throughout the world. This publication contains a wide variety of materials, including major reports and studies, resolutions and decisions, draft resolutions, meeting records and miscellaneous documents. This index contains all categories of documentation including those that are restricted in their distribution. The distribution policies for individual documents are identified in a note.

United Nations documents index continues the publication UNDOC : current index (ST/LIB/SER.M/) which was discontinued in October 1996. An interim publication, entitled, United Nations documents checklist, was issued in 1998 and covers document and publications received by the Library from the period from October 1996 through December 1997. The current publication is the successor to these publications. United Nations documents index will be published quarterly. The fourth quarter issue will cumulate the subject, author and title indices.

ARRANGEMENT AND USE OF THE PUBLICATION

This publication is arranged in nine sections, organized as follows:

1. Documents and publications

Full bibliographic citations, prepared in accordance with the Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules, 2nd edition and the International Standard Bibliographic Descriptions, are arranged in alphanumeric order by document symbol and by session. Publications that do not bear a symbol are entered by title under the name of the issuing body. Language versions of documents and publications are indicated in a note.

2. Official Records

This section contains bibliographic citations arranged by the Official Record designator.

3. Sales Publications

This section contains bibliographical citations arranged by sales number.

4. United Nations maps included in United Nations documents

This is a list of maps produced by the United Nations included in United Nations documents, arranged by map number. Each entry provides the title, symbol (if any) of the document containing the map as well as a sequential number referring to the "Documents and publications" section.

5. United Nations sheet maps

This section contains bibliographical citations arranged by map number, or in their absence, by title.

6. United Nations document series symbols

This section contains newly issued United Nations document series symbols. Each entry provides information about the series, the body responsible for issuing the series and the starting date of the series.

7. Author index

This is an alphabetic listing of personal, corporate and conference names responsible for publications. Each entry provides the title, symbol (if any) as well as a sequential number referring to the "Documents and publications" section.

8. Title index

This is an alphabetic list of the titles of documents and publications, with the exception of meeting records. A modified title created for all titles which are not significant replaces the title proper in the subject, personal/corporate name and title indexes. Included for each title are the document symbol (if any) and a sequential number referring to the "Documents and publications" section.

USER'S GUIDE

9. Subject Index

This is an alphabetic list of subject entries, each providing the title, document symbol (if any) and a sequential number referring to the "Documents and publications" section.

Indexing terms are taken from the UNBIS Thesaurus which contains the topical descriptors and major geographic names used in UNBIS databases. The general practice is single descriptor indexing. For example, a document dealing with social services for disabled persons in the least developed countries would be listed separately under each descriptor, i.e., DISABLED PERSONS, LEAST DEVELOPED COUNTRIES, SOCIAL SERVICES. As an exception, geographic names may be concatenated with topical subjects for the printed index, so that a document on health services in Brazil, for example, would be found under HEALTH SERVICES and under BRAZIL-HEALTH SERVICES. Corporate and conference names may also be coordinated with a small list of descriptors representing administrative procedural matters, for example, UN-BUDGET (1996-1997).

LANGUAGE OF MATERIALS

United Nations documents are issued mainly in one or more of the official languages of the Organization. The languages in which a document is available are indicated in the section "Documents and publications."

The abbreviations for the languages are as follows:

A - Arabic	F - French
C - Chinese	R - Russian
E - English	S - Spanish

AVAILABILITY OF MATERIALS

United Nations documents are classified as general, limited, participants only, or restricted, which designates their availability for distribution purposes. An explanation of each category follows.

(a) General: documents receiving full circulation. This designation is used on documents and final meeting records, including agenda, studies and reports, communications from Governments and resolutions and other decisions. Some documents in the general distribution category are not available for distribution to depository libraries.

(b) Limited: documents for which wide circulation is not desired because of their temporary nature. Included in this category are draft resolutions and amendments thereto, draft reports, preliminary action documents and other ephemeral items. Consequently, the primary distribution of documents in this category is limited to those persons or organizations likely to be immediately interested in the work of the body concerned. Limited documents bear the letter "L" before the serial number in the document symbol and are not available for distribution to depository libraries.

(c) Participants only: documents available only for participants in meetings and conferences.

(d) Restricted: documents whose confidential contents require that they be withheld from public circulation.

Such documents generally bear the letter "R" before the serial number in the symbol and the originating office determines their distribution.

For information about this publication please contact Chadwyck-Healey, Inc., 1101 King Street, Alexandria, Va 22314, United States, or Chadwyck-Healey Ltd., The Quorum, Barnwell Road, Cambridge CB5 8SW, United Kingdom.

DOCUMENT SERIES SYMBOLS

Symbols of United Nations documents are made up of alphanumeric elements that identify the authority under which they are issued. These elements, which are separated by the oblique stroke (/), are composed of capital letters and figures, usually arabic numerals. Roman numerals are sometimes used to indicate the number of the session or the subsidiary organ. Documents issued by two or more organs may carry two or more symbols, one for each organ. All language versions of a document carry the same symbol.

USER'S GUIDE

When necessary, document symbols in this publication have been expanded by the addition of letters and/or figures in square brackets, either to correct a symbol which contains a typographical error on the document, or to complete a symbol which appears on the document without the element(s) indicating the issuing authority. This ensures that documents will file in the correct sequence in the section "Documents and publications". If a document is reissued in the Official Records or as a sales publication, it retains its symbol. A sales publication may carry both a document symbol and a sales code. For a list of symbols, refer to United Nations document series symbols, 1946-1996 (ST/LIB/SER.B/5/Rev.5; Sales No. E.98.I.6).

The basic series elements of the five principal United Nations organs are:

A/	General Assembly
E/	Economic and Social Council
S/	Security Council
T/	Trusteeship Council
ST/	Secretariat

Documents of the International Court of Justice carry the initials of the Court - ICJ/.

Special basic series symbols also have been established for certain subsidiary organs of the United Nations, such as:

AT	United Nations Administrative Tribunal
CCPR/	Human Rights Committee
CERD/	Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination
DP/	United Nations Development Programme
TD/	United Nations Conference on Trade and Development
UNEP/	United Nations Environment Programme
WFC/	World Food Council

The documents of other subsidiary bodies generally carry a symbol consisting of the basic series symbol of the parent body, plus one or more of the following elements:

-/AC. .../	Ad hoc committee or similar body
-/C. .../	Standing, permanent or main committee
-/CN. .../	Commission
-/CONF. .../	Conference
-/GC. .../	Governing council
-/PC. .../	Preparatory committee
-/PCN. .../	Preparatory commission
-/SC. .../	Subcommittee
-/Sub. .../	Subcommission
-/WG. .../	Working group
-/WP. .../	Working party

A subsidiary body is assigned an arabic numeral which usually indicates the order in which it was established, (e.g. A/CN.10/ Disarmament Commission).

The documents of some subsidiary bodies bear a symbol consisting of the basic series symbol of the parent body followed by the initials or acronym of the body itself, e.g.:

A/SPC/	Special Political Committee of the General Assembly
E/ESCAP/	Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific
E/INCB/	International Narcotics Control Board

The following elements are sometimes included in document symbols to indicate the nature of the document:

-/BUR/	General Committee documents
-/DEC/	Texts of decisions
-/INF/	Information series
-/L.	Limited documents
-/MIN.	Minutes
-/NGO/	Statements by non-governmental organizations
-/PET/	Petitions
-/R.	Restricted documents

Voici la première parution de United Nations documents index. Cette publication, préparée par la Bibliothèque Dag Hammarskjöld au Siège de l'Organisation des Nations Unies à New York, est l'un des produits du Système d'information bibliographique de l'ONU (UNBIS). On y trouvera les documents et publications reçus par la Bibliothèque et publiés par les organismes de l'ONU dans le monde entier. Certaines des notices ont été établies par la Bibliothèque des Nations Unies à Genève qui fait partie du réseau UNBIS. Cet index répertorie une documentation variée qui comprend rapports et études, résolutions et décisions, projets de résolutions, comptes rendus de séance et autres documents. Elle inclut toutes les catégories de documents, y compris ceux dont la distribution est restreinte. La politique de distribution adoptée pour chaque document est précisée en note.

United Nations documents index succède à la publication UNDOC : current index, qui a été interrompue en octobre 1996. Une publication intermédiaire, intitulée United Nations documents checklist, est parue en 1998. Elle couvre les documents et publications reçus par la Bibliothèque entre octobre 1996 et décembre 1997. Le présent index est donc le successeur de ces publications. United Nations documents index paraîtra quatre fois par an. La quatrième parution cumulera les index par sujet, par auteur et par titre des trois parutions précédentes et couvrira ainsi la documentation d'une année.

PRESENTATION ET UTILISATION DE L'INDEX

La présente publication se compose de neuf parties décrites ci-après.

1. Documents et publications

Les notices bibliographiques complètes établies conformément aux règles de la deuxième édition de l'Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules (Règles de catalogage anglo-américaines), 2ème édition et de la Description bibliographique internationale normalisée, sont présentées par ordre alphanumérique par cote et par session. Les publications sans cote sont classées par titre sous le nom de l'organe dont elles émanent. Les différentes versions linguistiques des documents et publications sont indiquées en note.

2. Documents officiels

Les notices bibliographiques sont classées selon l'indicatif des Documents officiels.

3. Publications destinées à la vente

Les notices bibliographiques sont classées par numéro de vente.

4. Cartes des Nations Unies contenues dans les documents de l'ONU

Cette partie donne la liste des cartes des Nations Unies qui sont contenues dans les documents de l'ONU. Elles sont classées par numéro de carte, chaque entrée comportant le titre du document contenant la carte, sa cote éventuelle et le numéro d'ordre renvoyant à la partie "Documents et publications".

5. Cartes individuelles des Nations Unies

Les notices bibliographiques sont classées par numéro de carte, ou s'il n'existe pas, par titre.

6. Indicateurs de série des documents des Nations Unies

Il s'agit d'une liste par ordre alphanumérique des nouveaux indicateurs de série des documents des Nations Unies, précisant le nom de l'organe dont émane le nouvel indicatif et la première année de publication.

7. Index par auteur

Y figurent, par ordre alphabétique, les auteurs des publications. Les auteurs peuvent être des particuliers, des collectivités ou des conférences. Chaque entrée comporte le titre du document, sa cote éventuelle et le numéro d'ordre renvoyant à la partie "Documents et publications".

8. Index par titre

Il s'agit d'une liste alphabétique des titres des documents et publications, à l'exception des comptes rendus de séance. Un titre plus précis est créé pour les titres peu distincts. Ce titre remplace le titre exact du document dans les index par matière, par auteur/collectivité auteur et par titre. Chaque titre est suivi de sa cote éventuelle et du numéro d'ordre renvoyant à la partie "Documents et publications".

MANUEL DE L'UTILISATEUR

9. Index par matière

Les entrées par vedette-matière sont classées par ordre alphabétique. Chaque entrée comporte le titre du document, sa cote éventuelle et le numéro d'ordre renvoyant à la partie "Documents et publications".

Les termes d'indexation sont tirés du Thésaurus UNBIS qui fournit une liste récapitulative des descripteurs et principaux noms géographiques utilisés dans les fichiers d'UNBIS. Le principe suivi est essentiellement celui d'une indexation par descripteur. Ainsi, un document concernant les services sociaux pour personnes handicapées dans les pays les moins avancés sera classé dans l'index par matière sous chacun des descripteurs suivants: SERVICES SOCIAUX, PERSONNES HANDICAPEES, PAYS LES MOINS AVANCES. Néanmoins les descripteurs peuvent être associés à des noms géographiques dans l'index. Par exemple, un document sur les services de santé au Brésil figurera sous SERVICES DE SANTE et sous BRESIL-SERVICES DE SANTE. Les noms de collectivités-auteurs et de conférence peuvent être aussi associés à des descripteurs tirés d'une liste limitative se rapportant à des questions d'ordre administratif et de procédure, comme par exemple ONU-BUDGET (1996-1997).

LANGUES DE PUBLICATION DES DOCUMENTS

La plupart des documents de l'ONU sont publiés dans une ou plusieurs des langues officielles de l'Organisation. Les langues dans lesquelles un document est disponible sont indiquées dans la partie "Documents et publications" sous les abréviations suivantes:

A - Arabe F - Français
C - Chinois R - Russe
E - Anglais S - Espagnol

DIFFUSION DES DOCUMENTS

Les documents de l'ONU sont classés, aux fins de leur distribution, dans l'une des trois catégories suivantes: distribution générale, distribution limitée, aux participants seulement, distribution restreinte.

a) Distribution générale: Documents appelés à une très large diffusion. Cette indication figure sur les documents et comptes rendus de séance définitifs, y compris les ordres du jour, les études et rapports, les communications émanant de gouvernements et les résolutions et autres décisions. Certains documents de cette catégorie ne sont pas distribués aux bibliothèques dépositaires.

b) Distribution limitée: Documents qui, vu leur caractère provisoire, ne font pas l'objet d'une large diffusion. Entrent dans cette catégorie les projets de résolution et les amendements s'y rapportant, les projets de rapport, les documents de travail préliminaires et autres documents n'ayant qu'un intérêt éphémère. La distribution des documents de cette catégorie est donc essentiellement limitée aux personnes ou organisations pour lesquelles les travaux de l'organe considéré sont censés présenter un intérêt immédiat. Dans la cote des documents à distribution limitée, le numéro de série est précédé de la lettre "L". Ces documents ne sont pas envoyés aux bibliothèques dépositaires.

c) Participants seulement: Documents disponibles seulement pour les participants aux réunions et aux conférences.

d) Distribution restreinte: Documents dont le caractère confidentiel impose qu'ils ne soient pas rendus publics. En général, dans la cote de ces documents, le numéro de série est précédé de la lettre "R" et c'est l'organe dont ils émanent qui décide de leur distribution.

INDICATIFS DE SERIES

Les cotes des documents de l'ONU se composent d'éléments alphanumériques indiquant le nom de l'organe dont ils émanent. Ces éléments, séparés par des barres obliques (/), comportent des lettres majuscules et des chiffres, généralement arabes. Les chiffres romains sont employés pour indiquer la session ou l'organe subsidiaire. Les documents émanant de deux ou plusieurs organes peuvent porter deux ou plusieurs cotes correspondant chacune à un organe. Les versions dans différentes langues d'un document portent la même cote. Il a été nécessaire dans certains cas d'ajouter aux cotes des documents répertoriés dans la présente publication des lettres et/ou chiffres entre crochets, afin de corriger une cote contenant une erreur typographique ou de compléter une cote ne contenant pas les éléments indicatifs de l'organe responsable pour sa publication. Cela permet d'assurer que le document se verra attribuer un numéro d'ordre correct dans la partie "Documents et publications". Un document réédité dans les Documents officiels, ou comme publication destinée à la vente, conserve sa cote. Les publications destinées à la vente portent normalement une cote et un numéro de vente. On trouvera une liste des cotes utilisées dans United Nations Document Series Symbols, 1946-1996 (ST/LIB/SER.B/5/Rev.5; numéro de vente E.98.I.6).

Les indicatifs de séries des cinq organes principaux de l'Organisation des Nations Unies sont les suivants:

A/	Assemblée générale
E/	Conseil économique et social
S/	Conseil de sécurité
T/	Conseil de tutelle
ST/	Secrétariat

Les documents de la Cour internationale de Justice portent les initiales ICJ.

Des indicatifs spéciaux de séries ont été en outre adoptés pour certains organes subsidiaires de l'ONU, par exemple:

AT/	Tribunal administratif des Nations Unies
CCPR/	Comité des droits de l'homme
CERD/	Comité pour l'élimination de la discrimination raciale
DP/	Programme des Nations Unies pour le développement
TD/	Conférence des Nations Unies sur le commerce et le développement
UNEP/	Programme des Nations Unies pour l'environnement
WFC/	Conseil mondial de l'alimentation

Les documents des organes subsidiaires portent généralement une cote composée de l'indicatif de série de l'organe principal dont ils relèvent, suivi d'un ou plusieurs des indicatifs secondaires ci-après:

-/AC. .../	Comité ad hoc ou organe analogue
-/C. .../	Comité permanent ou Grande Commission
-/CN. .../	Commission
-/CONF. .../	Conférence

-/PCN. .../	Commission préparatoire
-/SC. .../	Sous-Comité
-/Sub. .../	Sous-Commission
-/WG. .../	Groupe de travail
-/WP. .../	Groupe de travail

Le chiffre arabe attribué aux organes subsidiaires correspond généralement à l'ordre dans lequel ces organes ont été créés (exemple, A/CN.10/, Commission du désarmement).

Les documents de certains organes subsidiaires portent une cote composée de l'indicatif de série de l'organe principal dont ils relèvent, suivi des initiales ou du sigle de l'organe subsidiaire, par exemple:

A/SPC/	Commission politique spéciale de l'Assemblée générale
E/ESCAP/	Commission économique et sociale pour l'Asie et le Pacifique
E/INCB/	Organe international de contrôle des stupéfiants

La cote comporte parfois des lettres indiquant la nature du document, par exemple:

-/DEC/	Texte de décisions
-/INF/	Document d'information
